

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to inquire about the opening for the customer assistant role you are currently offering.

I offer two years of experience in this area, with my speciality being working well under pressure, while maintaining high performance standards. I am flexible, meaning I can work individually and in a team, which I believe would make me a strong candidate for this opening. The section under skills and the section at the top in my attached resume highlights my career profile a little bit clearer and the significant accomplishments that are in alignment with this position can also be found.

I would welcome the opportunity to speak with you if you feel like I would be a strong candidate, as well as a good addition to the team for this or any other position in your organisation.

Kind Regards,

Patrick Bell.
